ATTACHMENT A

On October 13, 2019, a United States Customs and Border Protection Officer (CBPO) was conducting outbound inspections as part of his duties at the Hidalgo, Texas Port of Entry (POE). The CBPO, while assigned to the outbound inspection lanes, encountered a vehicle being driven by Ociel Ambrosio RAMIREZ-Ramirez (RAMIREZ).

Upon encountering RAMIREZ, RAMIREZ gave a negative declaration for weapons, ammunition, and cash in excess of $10,000.00 USD. A CBPO then referred RAMIREZ to the secondary inspection area for further inspection. Once in the secondary inspection area, a CBPO opened one of the many boxes in the back of the vehicle and noticed it contained numerous AK-47 magazines.

RAMIREZ was detained and Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) Special Agent (SA) Evan Mason was advised of the situation and responded to the Hidalgo POE to interview RAMIREZ. RAMIREZ was read his Miranda rights in the Spanish language as witnessed by a CBPO. RAMIREZ stated that he understood his rights, both verbally and in writing, and was willing to make a statement without an attorney present.

RAMIREZ stated he believed he was transporting something illegal from the United States to Mexico but did not know what specifically he was transporting or how much.

RAMIREZ stated that he was going to be paid approximately $700.00 USD to transport the unknown illegal commodity, later determined to be rifle and pistol magazines, into Mexico from the United States.

RAMIREZ stated that, following successfully smuggling the magazines into Mexico, he was to turn over his vehicle to another individual, who would then take control of the magazines.

According to the U.S. Department of State, Office of Defense Trade Controls Compliance (DTCC), rifle magazines are determined to be a defense article described on the United States Munitions List (USML) and regulated for export pursuant to the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2778). The Ak-47 magazines are covered under the USML. Pursuant to 22 U.S.C. 2778, it is illegal to export these magazines without a license.
